The world's prime marketplace for diamonds, gems & pearls

A presence at the 6th edition of the HKTDC Hong Kong International Diamond, Gem & Pearl Show (26 February - 2 March 2019) means exposure to the global jewellery industry, with its continuing high demand for quality stones, pearls and raw materials. The fair is growing in proportion to demand and its effectiveness is heightened by its conjunction with the 36th edition of the HKTDC Hong Kong International Jewellery Show (28 February - 4 March 2019). The two fairs will welcome over 4,550 exhibitors in 2019. Last year, a record-breaking total of some 87,000 buyers from 145 countries and regions visited the two shows, reinforcing the fairs' reputation as the premier marketplace for the industry.

A continuous and complimentary bus service allows buyers to commute between the two venues on the overlapping trade days.

Strengths of the two fairs

The Diamond, Gem & Pearl Show is a highly specialised trading platform which concentrates on raw materials. Buyers are able to source loose diamonds, semi-precious stones and pearls in a professional environment.

The volume and variety on offer facilitates buyers a wide range of choice. Despite this large volume, buyers can easily locate appropriate suppliers as goods are well organised into key product categories. Three highlighting zones are dedicated for the rarest pieces of diamonds, gems and pearls:

Hall of Fine Diamonds is for exhibitors of all kinds of quality diamonds in carat sizes and cuts and including fancy colours.

Treasures of Nature showcases precious gemstones from many different origins.

Treasures of Ocean gathers together quality pearls from Tahiti, the South Seas and other sources.

The iconic HKTDC Hong Kong International Jewellery Show completes the world's leading jewellery marketplace with thematic zones such as the World of Glamour, Hall of Extraordinary, Antique & Vintage Jewellery Galleria, Hall of Fame, Designer Galleria, Hall of Jade Jewellery and Treasures of Craftsmanship.

Whirl of activity

The events of the fair are designed to assist exhibitors and buyers alike. Networking gatherings allow exhibitors to expand their contacts and consolidate relationships. Jewellery parades, seminars and other information sessions are a source of vital market intelligence and expert insights.
